they have proven to be completely reliable and trustworthy.

Information has been furnished [] confidentially in the past on several occasions which he has used to the benefit of the Bureau. (Bureau note case entitled "COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM; INTERNAL SECURITY - DISRUPTION OF HATE GROUPS," Bufile 157-9-29, Miami file 157-1114).

[] said that in production of this program, he expects to interview persons involved in the Black Nationalist and New Left Movements.

b7C

[] said that statements and claims made by those interviewed will then be discredited where possible through the use of public source information. He said the objective of this program is the same as the programs he has previously produced on the Ku Klux Klan and the States Rights Party; that is, discrediting the organizations and persons involved.

Bureau authority is requested to furnish [] the identities of publicly identified Black Nationalists and activists of the New Left, particularly in the organizations NOI, United Black Students (UBS - a newly formed student group at the University of Miami), the Florida Black Front, and the Southern Student Organizing Committee.

Authority is also requested to furnish [] public source information that can be located showing statements and activities of these individuals and groups. With regard to the NOI, sufficient public source information should be available through "Muhammad Speaks" and other NOI publications. There is ample public source information available concerning UBS in view of the arrest on 5/14/68 of UBS members who participated in a sit-in at the office of the President, University of Miami.

Public source information concerning SSOC officials is available in an underground "hippy-type" newspaper, the "Florida Free Press."

MM 157-2414

Jacksonville is requested to furnish Miami any public source information available concerning FBF.

b6
b7C

If Bureau authority is granted to cooperate with [] in this program, Miami will, of course, keep the Bureau advised of the specific information or type of information he desires.

From past experience with [] on similar matters, the Miami Office feels assured he will not reveal the Bureau's interest or betray the Bureau's confidence and this program will not result in any embarrassment to the Bureau.

SAC Letter 68-30(E), dated 5/21/68, pointed out the necessity for increased coverage on college campuses to insure the Bureau is in a position to receive advance information of any planned disruptive activities. In order to facilitate the overall supervision of the Counterintelligence Program, as well as to fulfill our intelligence gathering responsibilities, all offices are instructed to provide the following detailed information, in form suitable for dissemination, for each college and/or university in their respective territories where organized New Left groups are in existence or where there have been campus disturbances during the past year. Fifteen copies of each letterhead memorandum should be submitted appropriately captioned, "New Left Activity--- University."

- 1) Identity of all New Left organizations, a characterization of each and approximate membership.
- 2) Identity of the ringleaders in each group with detailed background information, including any subversive data and a summary of activities in the New Left movement.
- 3) Summarize campus disruptive activities during the past year identifying the organizations involved, issues in contention, violence which erupted, and final outcome of the disorder. This category should also include information on any outside influence, as well as student and faculty participation.

Your cover communication should set forth, in detail, your present informant and/or source coverage on each campus fitting the above description, as well as in each organization mentioned. Comment should be made on programs in existence or plans being made to improve this coverage. An evaluation should be made as to the potential for violence on campuses in your territory for the forthcoming school year.

Note D/V The above information should be submitted under the above caption to reach the Bureau no later than 7/3/68 intelligence operation against SSOC in cooperation with [redacted] [redacted]. This operation is currently underway. [redacted], SSOC members mentioned in the enclosed letterhead memorandum, have been interviewed and the interviews taped by [redacted] for this planned program.

The United Black Students (UBS) recently formed at the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida, but now is located off campus. It has not been included in the enclosed letterhead memorandum. The objectives of the UBS, such as scholarships for black students, more black instructors on the faculty, and introduction of black and African courses in the curriculum, have overtones of black militancy rather than those of New Left groups. The UBS staged a peaceful sit-in in the University President's office to dramatize their demands. Fourteen were arrested for refusal to vacate the area. A report on the UBS and its activities has been submitted under the Racial Matters classification.

A minor protest occurred at the University of Miami in March, 1968. Students opposed to the Vietnam War, unorganized, staged an on-campus rally provoked by the presence of a U. S. Army Recruiting Team. Hawkish students briefly disrupted their attempts. The rally proceeded, however, in a peaceful manner. No arrests were made. No disruption occurred. The Army Recruiters were not subjected to interference. This incident also has not been included in the letterhead memorandum.

Coverage of SSOC-FAU is provided by [redacted]

[redacted], FAU, is an established source and has furnished information on members of this organization.

Assistant Chief of Police CHARLES A. McCUTCHEON, Boca Raton Police Department, voluntarily furnishes information.

[redacted], Boca Raton Police Department, part-time student at FAU, also furnishes information concerning the formation of campus groups at this institution.

A student at FAU, [] has also voluntarily furnished information concerning SSOC-FAU and meetings held by this chapter.

[] potential will be fully explored to determine if he could penetrate this chapter and qualify as a security informant.

Efforts are also continuing to obtain other sources in this organization.

Campuses within the Miami territory presently appear to offer no potential for violence for the forthcoming school year. The University of Miami, the major campus, has been publicly described and self-described as apathetic. New Left groups have not gained a foothold at this institution. Other campuses, the majority of which are state institutions, have as an enrollment principally commuter students who take little interest in campus activities and are on campus usually only when attending classes. It is, therefore, felt no violence will occur, although it is realized an influx of new students could rapidly change this situation.

Re Miami airtel 5/22/63, and Bureau letter 5/31/63.

Channel 7, WCKT-TV, (WEC), Miami presented a 30 minute expose type documentary as mentioned in referenced Miami airtel on prime time at 6:30 PM, Sunday 7/7/63. The audience rating for this period is estimated at near 200,000 persons.

This program received considerable advance publicity through "spot" announcements during the preceding week. It was also recommended in the Sunday, 7/7/63, "Miami Herald's" TV preview as one of the "week's best bets" in a survey of national and local programs for the coming week. This was one of only eight programs so recommended and the only locally produced program listed.

This program was produced in such a way as to avoid propagandizing the organizations and individuals mentioned during the program.

The program did an excellent job in exposing these individuals as being dangerous to our society and bringing out the nature of their militancy for exposure to the general public. Likewise the program exposed the fact that they were extremely active on college campuses in Florida which most of the citizenry fails to recognize or be aware of. The remarks made by a number of the members of the New Left and Black Nationalists certainly substantiated remarks recently made by the Director relative to their aims and purposes.

The first half of the program was devoted mainly to the New Left particularly SSOC as it exists in Florida and mainly in the South Florida area. The second half dealt mainly with Black Nationalist particularly the Florida black front as it exists and operates in Florida. The program concluded with quotes from Director J. EDGAR HOOVER concerning the New Left.

WCKT-TV indicates that the response has been such that in all probability they will go to the extent of reproducing this film in black and white so that it can be made available to a number of civic organizations who have requested use of the film for showing locally. The Miami Division contemplates securing a copy of this film which will be forwarded to the Bureau within the near future, since the contents of the film would undoubtedly be of interest.

The Miami Division feels that excellent results have been obtained in this highly significant counter-intelligence undertaking and should be a definite deterrent to the operations of these organizations not only in South Florida but in other areas in North Florida where their operations were specifically pointed out in the course of this film.

Enclosed for the Bureau and Jacksonville is one copy each of the manuscripts for this program.

By separate communication the Miami Division will be making appropriate recommendations for recognition of the employees involved in this counterintelligence undertaking.

FAU 'New Left' Activists Favor Revolution--Violent Or Peaceful

Jim Agut, SUN columnist and President of the FAU chapter of Southern Student Organizing Committee (SSOC), stated last Sunday night that he "most definitely" would like to see a revolution in this country, peaceful or violent.

Being interviewed by Miami newscaster Wayne Fariss on a half hour documentary aired Sunday on Channel 7, Agut indicated that he thought the "best organized society would be socialist based, although I don't preclude private enterprise in it."

Agut, 20, a history and economics major in his senior year, was one of a group of four members of the "New Left" introduced by Fariss as "dedicated revolutionaries." A second member of the group was ex-SUN Editor Romeo Rivard who was a student at FAU until the end of the Spring quarter.

Also mentioned during the program was another ex-FAU student, Charles Wright, who later helped organize the Florida Black Front. Wright once served as Attorney General in Student Body President Ken Jenne's cabinet. He's now a Vista volunteer.

Rivard took a somewhat less militant stand than did Agut. "I haven't been planning too much for revolution," but I would like to see one," Rivard, Editor and Publisher of the Florida Free Press, stated. "I personally am too scared to go out and start shooting though," he continued.

Rivard and Agut are both currently awaiting trial in Palm Beach County on obscenity charges in connection with their work on the Florida Free Press. Agut no longer contributes to the newspaper however.

Asked what type of revolution he would advocate, Rivard mentioned one of the "Peaceful" variety. "That'd be groovy, great," he said.

Agut, interviewed at the home of a friend Sunday night following the taped telecast, indicated that his future includes plans for a trip to Canada. Asked if he would renounce his U.S. citizenship, he reported that "would take any citizenship necessary" to avoid the draft. Would he feel guilty? "Certainly not."

The bespectacled student denied that he had any ties with Communism. "For one thing, Marxists have faith in the inevitability of revolution. I do not -- I feel that revolutions are acts created by men, not things that just happen," he noted.

His wife brought up the subject of her brother, Agut's brother-in-law, a West Point graduate who is serving in Viet Nam. "He's a tool of the capitalist lackeys," stated the six foot, four inch leftist.

Was the program, as aired by Channel 7, edited in such a manner that the real identity of the Florida New Left was presented? "No, Crimes of omission are greater than crimes of distortion of fact. They left out essential parts, and slanted others."

Like what? "Take the case of Charles Wright, a Vista volunteer. Fariss made it appear as if Wright were trying to subvert Vista. That isn't true," Agut charged.

"They seemed to pick the least significant things we had to say," he continued. "I said some pretty horrible things about FAU, and to my great disappointment they were left out."

"If FAU is so horrible, why are you there?" Agut was asked. "To raise hate and discontent," came the reply. He cites the biggest fault with FAU as the "ineptness and insipidness of Administrators."

Involvement in student politics is an essential part of his university career, he says. A student Senator, he has enjoyed his legislative stint "immensely." His term runs until next April. Agut plans to actively support a candidate for Student Body President in campus elections next October. "Right now, it'll be Bob Burdick, although he's playing the Rockefeller game, saying that he isn't running," Agut revealed.

Moving back to the subject of the televised interviews, Agut reported that the program's bias was "clearly shown" by Fariss' choice of J. Edgar Hoover, FBI Director, for quotes regarding Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), one of the New Left's principal organizations.

"Hoover's all washed up," Agut charged. "He says SDS is organized on a Leninist basis. But Leninist parties are highly centralized and disciplined."

"SDS structure more closely resembles an anarchy."

DANIEL GORDON, Supervisor, was interviewed by Mr. CLASS and is reported to have stated the following:

KLIGMAN acted as Shop Steward for the CIO Insurance Guild, United Office and Professional Workers of America, 311 S. Juniper St., Philadelphia. KLIGMAN organized agents in the office and as a result of that activity the Company discharged him. The case was heard before the National Labor Relations Board and the Union and the employer agreed he should leave the Company entirely without prejudice. GORDON is reported to have further stated KLIGMAN never gave him any reason to believe that he was a Communist or that he was not loyal to the United States.

GORDON is reported to have further stated that the complete history of KLIGMAN's activities as an employee is reflected in the personnel files of the Home Office of the Company, Nashville, Tennessee.

Mr. E. L. STRITCH, Vice-President, has full knowledge of the case.

BENJAMIN LEVY, former neighbor, 2423 S. Third St., Philadelphia, stated he had known subject for thirty years. He further stated subject's sister, BELAH KLIGMAN, married JACK KATZ and was residing at the subject's deceased mother's home, 345 Gladstone St. LEVY is reported to have given no further pertinent information.

MAX SEIDMAN, neighbor, 1618 S. Fourth Street, Philadelphia, whose office is at 1510 Penn Mutual Building, is reported to have stated he knew subject and wife when they resided at 1610 S. Fifth Street for about five years. SEIDMAN further stated they moved July 1941 to North Philadelphia. He continued they were associated with Mr. and Mrs. SAM BLUMBERG, 1610 S. Fifth St., and BLUMBERG's married daughter, EVE DICHTER and ABRAM and MIRIAM GOLDMAN, 1645 S. Fifth St. SEIDMAN is also reported to have given no further pertinent information.

ABRAM N. SIGMUND, neighbor, 1611 S. Laurence St., was also interviewed but submitted no further pertinent information.

EVE DICHTER and Mrs. BLUMA BLUMBERG, 1610 S. Fifth St., upon interview submitted no further pertinent information. However, the agent's notes indicate that they were interviewed under pretext and that DICHTER dominated her mother's conversation to the extent that no information was obtained. The notes further indicate that EVE, according to the files of ONI at Philadelphia, is a member of Local #46, State, County, and Municipal Workers of America, and worked in the Headquarters of the Department of Public Assistance, 112 N. Broad St., Philadelphia.

MIRIAM GOLDMAN, former neighbor, 2845 D St., Philadelphia, whose office is at the Frankford High School, upon interview by [] is reported to have stated she knew the subject and wife through her husband who attended Temple University with KLIGMAN and that they were merely social acquaintances, and she submitted no further pertinent information.

[] memo further states that the ONI files, Philadelphia, show one MIRIAM GOLDMAN received mail, c/o ALMA REINHOLT, a known Communist, Apartment C-18, Carl Mackley Apartments, Philadelphia from the American Youth for Democracy and the Logan Club of Sweethearts for Service Men, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This office is in receipt of a form letter from G-2, Intelligence, Washington, D. C., to the Director, FBI dated 12/21/50 concerning one LEON KLIGMAN, ASN 33794369. The subject was born December 21, 1912, at Talna, Russia. He was discharged from the United States Army on September 22, 1945. Instant letter indicates that subject's wife, BELLE KLIGMAN, was a member of the Communist Party, U.S.A. at Philadelphia, Pa.

Records at G-2, Washington, D. C., were reviewed by the Washington Field Office and failed to reveal any further information concerning the subject. The files of the HUAC, 78th Congress, Second Session, reflect one LEON KLIGMAN, Boot and Shoe Workers Union, Cleo Sandle Company, Philadelphia, Pa., as a member of the National Council of the American Youth Congress.

Records at G-2, Second Army, Fort George G. Meade, Md., were reviewed by the Baltimore Office and reflect that the source of the above information is in FBI report of SA JOSEPH C. DODGE dated 8/22/44 entitled "BELLE KLIGMAN" Philadelphia file number 100-24583. An investigation by G-2 in 1945 failed to reflect any information which indicates the subject to be a member of the Communist Party.

The indices of the Philadelphia Office were reviewed for the subject and indicated that LEON KLIGMAN and his wife were members of Lodge number 464 J.P.F.O.--I.W.O. in 1947 and 1949. No information has been developed by the Philadelphia Office that indicates the subject is or has been a member of the Communist Party in Philadelphia. No information has been developed which indicates that the subject's wife, BELLE KLIGMAN, has been an active member of the Communist Party, U.S.A. since 1944.

The following investigation was conducted in an effort to determine the subject's present sympathies towards the Communist Party:

On January 16, 1952, SE [redacted] advised that Voters' Registration Certificate number 470290-3, maintained in City Hall Annex, Philadelphia, Pa., reflected the following information: LEIZER KLIGMAN registered as a voter from the address 1248 Kerper Street on August 11, 1948. He was born December 21, 1912, in Russia and was naturalized August 24, 1943, at United States District Court, Philadelphia, under Certificate number A78049.

His occupation was listed as installment business. He is described as a white male, 5'5" in height, with brown hair and black eyes. KLIGMAN previously registered from 403 Hoffman Street, Philadelphia, in 1947.

b7C

On January 14, 1952, SE [] advised that the files of the Philadelphia Police Department contained the following arrest record: One LEON A. KLIGMAN, 1610 South 5th Street, was arrested March 14, 1937, on charge of manslaughter by auto. This case was discharged by the Coroner on June 21, 1937. KLIGMAN is described as a white male, age 25 in 1937, and of Russian nationality.

The Philadelphia Realty Directory reflects that LEON A. KLIGMAN purchased a residence at 1248 Kerper Street in February of 1948. The current cross reference telephone directory reflects that the subject continues to reside at this address as of February 20, 1952.

On January 28, 1952, the writer interviewed one Mr. LOUIS J. BLATT, who resides at 1246 Kerper Street and operates a dry goods store at 1130 West Columbia Street. Mr. BLATT advised that he has resided next door to the subject for four years. He stated that the subject is self-employed in the installment business and works from his home. Mr. BLATT stated that he had no knowledge of the subject ever being a member of the Communist Party. He advised that he had never heard the subject make any statements concerning the Communist Party and which indicates that the subject was sympathetic to this organization. Mr. BLATT stated, however, that in conversation the subject had disagreed with United States intervention in Korea stating that the United States should have stayed out of Korea. He advised that he had never seen any meetings in the subject's home which might indicate Communist Party activities. Mr. BLATT further advised that the subject is a veteran of the United States Army and that he has found the subject to be liberal in his political views. He could furnish no further information.

On February 18, 1952, the writer interviewed Mrs. MAURICE DOBIN, 1250 Kerper Street, who stated that she has known the KLIGMAN family for four years as next door neighbors. She stated that to the best of her knowledge the subject and his wife were not members of the Communist Party or sympathetic towards this organization. She advised that she had no knowledge of the subject or his wife ever being members of any subversive organization. Mrs. DOBIN stated that the KLIGMANS appeared to be average neighbors and she had no reason to believe them to be in any way disloyal to the United States.

The following contacts with Security Informants were made as indicated and the subject was not known to the informants: [] on 2/26/52 by SA ALBERT RUNDBAKEN. [] on 2/28/52 by SA JAMES E. HELMER.

Inasmuch as no information has been developed which indicates Communist Party activity on the part of the subject, it is suggested that this case be close administratively.

THE GROUPS CHANGE BUT THE INDIVIDUALS REMAIN CONSTANT - IS THAT CORRECT?

"THIS WOULDN'T QUITE FOLLOW, YOU SEE THAT THE OLD LEFT AS IT HAD EMERGED WAS A SMALL GROUP AND LETS SAY IT BLOOMED FOR A WHILE AND IT DISSAPPEARED AND IT NEVER REALLY TOOK ROOT IN AMERICAN SOIL - NOW THE NEW LEFT IS PART OF
 LETS SAY A WORLD-WIDE ANTI-BUREAUACRACY
 AWAKENING THAT IS NOT ONLY COMMON TO THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE BUT WE ALSO FIND IT BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN AND I THINK ITS A REACTION TO THE EVILS OF BUREAUACRACY WHICH AH LETS SAY NOT SIMPLY THE EVILS OF CAPITALISM SO I WOULD SAY REGARDING ANY POSSIBLE ALLIANCE WITH THAT SECRET ROOM IN MOSCOW - THIS IS JUST RIDICU-LOUS - NOW COMMUNISTS WILL TAG ON TO OUR

THE ONLY ACTIVE TROTSKYIST GROUPS BASED IN THIS COUNTRY ARE THE SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY BASED IN NEW YORK AND THE SPARTACISTS, WHICH IS A SPLINTER GROUP FROM THE S.W.P. WHICH WAS PURGED IN 1963 FROM THE PARTY FOR BEING ULTRA-LEFT, WHICH IS A STRANGE THING INDEED FOR A TROTSKYITE GROUP TO DO. THEY'RE BASED IN NEW ORLEANS AND THE SPARTACISTS, MORE OR LESS WHAT I WOULD CONSIDER THE HEAD OF THE SPARTACISTS IN THE SOUTH IS TOM KNIGHT WHOM I'M FAIRLY WELL ACQUAINTED WITH."

UNITED STATES COMMUNIST PARTY LEADER GUS HALL HAS DESCRIBED S-D-S AS PART OF THE RESPONSIBLE LEFT WHICH THE PARTY HAS "GOING FOR US". WE'VE SEEN HOW S-D-S IS IDEOLOGICALLY LINKED WITH THE LOCAL SOUTHERN STUDENT ORGANIZING COMMITTEE BUT S-D-S ORGINS GO BACK AS FAR AS 1905 WHEN AMERICAN NOVELIST AND ONE-TIME SOCIALIST UPTON SINCLAIR FORMED THE LEAGUE FOR INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY. THE STUDENT ARM OF L-I-D, THE STUDENT LEAGUE FOR INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY BEGAN IN 1930. THAT GROUP EVENTUALLY BECAME S-D-S. THE NEW LEFT CAN ONLY BE INEW IN RELATION TO WHAT HAS COME TO BE KNOWN AS THE OLD LEFT., THAT INCLUDES THE COMMUNIST PARTY U.S.A. AND THEIR SPLINTER PROGRE. SIVE LABOR PARTY WHICH FOLLOWS THE TEACHINGS OF MAO TSE TUNG. THE ^{next to the} TROTSKYITES ARE THE STRONGEST AND THE MOST INFLUENTIAL OF THE OLD LEFT. THEY ARE THE SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY OF NEW YORK - AND EVEN FARTHER TO THE LEFT, THE SPARTACISTS IN NEW ORLEANS WHO BROKE AWAY FROM THE SOCIALST WORKERS, CONSIDERING THEM TOO MODERATE.

WCKT TELEVISES VEILED LIES

Since we did not wish to burden the Miami Herald with too many words, we presented them the above letter. Therefore, we will take further space here to mention a few more gripes with that Channel 7 "Documentary."

The interview was conducted by Richard Berman who presented us with questions in a friendly and relaxed manner. We answered accordingly. The program however, allowed Wayne Farris to turn the questions around, while re-presenting them in an authoritative and accusing manner, and we had no opportunity to answer indignantly, as the portions of the program showing us and our answers were all pre-recorded on sound-film. The alternating portions showing Farris and his questions was recorded and dubbed-in at a later date. We were tricked into a position of disadvantage. We spoke to an unscrupulous TV camera and our answers stolen from us.

Mike Meiselman was also victimized by the same Channel 7 documentary.

Meiselman stated that the questions connected in the same manner with his answers—were not quite the same as the original questions presented him during the filming.

Finally, we take issue with the editorial quoting J. Edgar Hoover which was used to close the program. This editorial was much stronger than any of the questions put to us during the interview.

We certainly hope that this editorial as well as the rest of the documentary do not represent the official position of WCKT, Channel 7 Television and since we hope that WCKT believes in that great old timey American tradition of "fair play," we feel certain that they will insist on giving us some 6:30ish PM Sunday time so that we may present our rebuttal.

Editor, The Miami Herald:

In a recent Channel 7 so-called documentary on "the new left," the editors of the Florida Free Press and the Libertarian Watchdog newspapers were largely featured. Keith Davidson, assistant Channel 7 news director said the interview was fair to us in that we were quoted in entirety and in context. To this, we agree. What we have to complain about, however, is the SELECTION of questions we were given to answer.

Effective propaganda avoids the excesses of direct accusation. Instead the desired message is SUGGESTED. The average televiewer does not bother to analyze the structure of the program presentation. Instead, he is absorbed by the screen. Transfixed. Helpless. He does not question what he sees, he LEARNS from it.

We were allowed to "have our say" in a dialogue that was centered largely about every possible treasonous, traitorous, seditious, or revolutionary action conceivable.

Then, we were asked questions regarding the new left in comparison with the "old left," the Trotskyite-left, the Moscow-left and the Peking-left. Thus, the movement of the interview was pervaded by the most uneasy thematic import.

And according to a basic law of propaganda, "whatever is continuously and blatantly ASKED, is incessantly and tenaciously SUGGESTED." In other words, all talk about the new left became quite academic and quite irrelevant before the real implications of our trial.

But with all of this... even while we were allowed to distinguish between the new left and the old left, we were not consulted about our ideological gripes with ALL contemporary "Big Government." We were not questioned in depth about our sociopolitical world views, or those things for which we strive. We were not even consulted regarding the topics we consider most relevant to the new left. It is also interesting to note that during the interview, there was not one direct question regarding racism or poverty.

Thank you, Robert E. Schwartz

Gables Officials Seek To Bar Non-Student Militants From UM

By MAURICE LABELLE
Coral Gables authorities have suggested to the University of Miami that an injunction be obtained against them from further activity at UM. Individual members continue to push SDS causes, usually in conjunction with United SDS. itself has lost its charter at UM, though its See GABLES, Page 4

Black Students (UBS), a creature of SDS at UM.

Another possibility is that the two outsiders, Michael members of SDS to block Meiselman and Dennis Horn-bacher, could also be placed on peace bonds if it were felt that their activities could lead to further breaches of the peace.

Meiselman, also a leader in another radical leftist organization, the Southern Student Organizing Committee, and a student, Jeremy Kehoe, were arrested by Gables police following the recent "Day of Conscience" at UM.

Kehoe was placed on probation for interfering in the arrest of Meiselman on a traffic charge.

A precedent for the restrictive move was set several years ago when the University banned all off-campus photographers who did not have clearance from school authorities.

According to Coral Gables police, a check with Columbia University officials revealed that Dennis Hornbacher, SDS leader and Peace Center "draft-counselor," has never attended that institution.

Hornbacher had been identified by the Miami-Dade Junior College North Campus paper, "The Falcon Times," as a Columbia student who had been expelled for his revolutionary activities there.

Choke Colleges Who Surrender

In notable and infamous cases over the last two weeks, administrators of some American colleges could not be depended on to defend the higher ideals of free education.

Instead, at the point of guns and under the pressure of ugly words, they wilted — and allowed their hallowed institutions of learning to be closed and become the armed camps of rabble.

These college presidents — from the staid old buildings of Harvard to the halls of southern-Negro colleges — failed not only their principles and their duties, but failed the generations of education-oriented supporters whose endowments have given continuity to the ideals of education for all.

The simplest way to deal with these cowards in educators' gowns is to put them into a pasture where they bring no further harm.

But that is too much to expect from boards of trustees who, in the cases of the colleges closed by anarchists and armed insurrectionists, are about as courageous as the presidents who submitted to abduction and campus seizure, or who may even have had a hand in the surrender.

Ye, the American public has a way to show its disgust.

Any alumnus who gets tapped by his alma mater for an annual donation — or who luckily still has the wherewithal to make a larger endowment — should carefully review whether he is paying for a college whose curriculum is a periodic exercise in guerrilla warfare.

If that be the case, a letter to the development office director informing him that the annual donation is being withheld for pertinent reasons will hit where it hurts.

Any college which suddenly finds its lifeblood — endowments and alumni support — cut off is going to think twice before it again allows bearded, barefooted, obscene-tongued, armed malcontents to decide whether classes stay open.

What's happening at your alma mater?

Off Beat

Real Culprits Hide Behind 'Academic Freedom' Shield

By MAURICE LABELLE

While the student militants at the University of Miami may be culpable in their own right, it is truly sad that the LABELLE immune from prosecution.

These Fagin-like characters, utilizing the classroom as a platform for incendiary statements often having no bearing on the announced subject, cowardly hide behind scholarly robes while students man the ramparts.

A dozen or so have promoted their divisive and inflammatory propaganda for more than 15 years. They were there when I was a student, parrotting the same old tired tirades against the "establishment."

While the "establishment" changed hands several times since, the line has remained pretty much unchanged, as reported by students from time to time.

There is a major difference, however, at the University.

The administration, which was conservative through the leadership of Dr. Jay F. W. Pearson, is now liberally flavored.

When at one time, during the post World War II period a number of Communist professors were purged from the faculty, this would be unthinkable today.

The University's student publications for most of the period leading up to a few years ago were in the hands of liberal and moderate students, as was the student government.

Today both these areas are firmly in the control of the militant leftists who have changed the machinery for selection of campus editors to virtually insure perpetual control and domination by the radical left.

The result is a constant harange at the liberal administration, the community, and the nation at large.

Without the editorial and other support of the Miami Hurricane, a paper which I'm sad to say I once edited, and Tempo magazine, it is difficult to believe that the subversive SDS and their ironically segregated black counterparts, UBS, would have much influence.

Last year, it became evident that this influence had spread to the Undergraduate Student Government, which picked up where SDS left off and carried the ball for them.

Dr. Henry King Stanford, who acted and spoke in such a manner as to encourage the development of this radical left element on campus, is now taking a new tact.

Whether this has resulted from the reaction to his policies or from a realization that he had opened a Pandora's Box is a matter of conjecture.

Today, UM students are venturing forth from the campus into the community to foment trouble and discord, egged on by their professorial mentors from the safety of their sanctuaries.

These students might ask themselves and their sponsors why they lack the courage of their convictions.

J. Edgar Hoover Labels New Left, 'Firmly Established Subversive Force'

The GUIDE
Coral Gables, Fla.
8/28/69^a

By JOHN D. LOFTON

In recently released testimony before a House Appropriations subcommittee, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), J. Edgar Hoover, has labeled the New Left movement in the United States "a firmly established subversive force dedicated to the complete destruction of our traditional democratic values and the principles of free government."

Characterizing the New Left movement as a "new specter haunting the Western world," Hoover added: "This movement represents the militant, nihilistic, and anarchistic forces which have become entrenched, for the most part, on college campuses and which threaten the orderly process of education as the forerunner of a more determined effort to destroy our economic, social and political structure."

Among those aspects of the movement Mr. Hoover reported on in his annual trip to Capitol Hill requesting funds were:

● NEW LEFT FINANCES. Generally obtained from contributions, dues, sales of literature, benefits, ads, and fund drives, Mr. Hoover revealed that while the majority of donations are in the $10 to $50 range, "wealthy benefactors" who have acquired their fortunes in the U.S., "have contributed substantial amounts" in support of the New Left in general and the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) in particular. Other sources of revenue cited were several foundations (one in New York which has contributed more than a quarter of a million dollars from 1961 to 1968 to New Left and Communist sympathizers) and demonstrations (one anti-Vietnam war rally in New York City took in some $10,000 from the sale of buttons). American Communist Party leaders, Hoover said, have also used party members to give time and money to "New Left demonstrations and causes."

● STUDENTS for a Democratic Society (SDS): Among those continuing to be in the "forefront of the organizations . . . taking every opportunity to foment discord among the youth in this country," Hoover declared that a great number of SDS leaders and members advocate "revolutionary communism." He quoted SDS National Secretary Michael Klonsky's statement at the March meeting this year in Austin, Texas of the group's National Council: "Our primary task is to build a Marxist-Lenin revolutionary movement."

Hoover also noted a rising militancy in the SDS during 1968 citing a sabotage and uses of explosives workshop at the 1968 SDS convention which discussed such things as disrupting police facilities during riots and disrupting selective service; flushing "bird bombs" down toilets to destroy plumbing; using sharp, tripod-shaped instruments to flatten vehicle tires; jamming radio equipment; firing Molotov cocktails from a shotgun; using electronic firing devices; and inserting "thermite bombs" in manholes to destroy communications.

● ACTS OF VIOLENCE. During the past year or so following New Left exhortations to violence, acts of violence actually increased. A few of those instances mentioned by Mr. Hoover included:

—Five persons active in the New Left have thus far been charged with a number of bombings in the San Francisco area, including the destruction of three Pacific Gas and Electric Company towers in June of 1968.

On Feb. 20, 1969, Michael Siskind, a student at the University of Washington in St. Louis, Mo., and an SDS activist, on a plea of guilty in Federal court was sentenced to five years imprisonment in connection with charges stemming from the attempted firebombing of ROTC headquarters on campus.

Between Jan. 20 and Jan. 28 of this year, high-powered transmission lines running to a helicopter factory near Denver, Col. were dynamited. On Feb. 14, Cameron David Bishop, an SDS activist, was indicted by a Federal grand jury in connection with these incidents and is presently being sought as a fugitive and is on the FBI's 10 most wanted list.

● COMMUNIST PARTY, U.S.A. Though overshadowed by the militancy of the New Left, Hoover reports that "the threat of communism has not subsided."

While it's true that the number of Communists speaking on college campuses was slightly down in 1967-68 from previous years, Hoover feels that the CPUSA has somewhat relinquished its campus role in attracting dissident youth to the New Left while they concentrate on recruiting in U.S. industry.

Despite a split in the American Communist Party as to how they should line up in the "black power" struggle, the party's Commission on Liberation has passed motions to accept the Black Panther Party program, to work as closely with the Panthers as they will permit, and to join the Panthers if possible.

In a 1967 pamphlet, Claude Lightfoot, head of the Party's liberation commission, wrote that the party's opposition to guerrilla warfare by blacks in the U.S. was opposed by the CPUSA not because they rejected violence but because the party did not feel the time was right.

● KU KLUX KLAN. With a combined hard-core membership of about 8,500 Hoover reported "that Klan activity has spread from the South to several Northern states." The FBI has continued their intensified efforts to infiltrate this organization, he said.

● MINUTEMEN. Another group receiving the "close attention" of the FBI. This group, which boasts of thousands of members but which Hoover says has "only about 500 . . . many of these inactive," prepares its members to overthrow the U.S. Government when the Government is taken over by the Communists.

● BLACK PANTHER PARTY. Following the philosophy of Red Chinese dictator Mao Tse-tung and teaching guerrilla warfare tactics, the Panthers are "one of the most active black extremist groups," says Hoover.

Tracing their violent history which has included the murder of several policemen, Hoover said that it is "reported that in the near future scheduled training sessions in California will teach guerrilla warfare tactics to selected members from all parts of the U.S."

"While the phenomenon of revolution protest movements manifested by campus rebellions and riotous demonstrations throughout the world reached a new peak during the past year," Hoover told the subcommittee, "it has been building up for a decade. The wave of extremism . . . has impaired the successful and speedy prosecution of the Vietnam war effort, jeopardized the struggle for civil rights and increased animosity between blacks and whites."

Dear [REDACTED]:

When you get a minute sometime next week, could you give me a jingle to exchange some casual conversation about a Black Panther film we're trying to track down.

A Pan Am friend of mine says it has been shown twice at Southwest High, apparently against school policy, by some outside character in cooperation with some wierdo teachers.

We further understand it is being shown Sunday night, Feb. 22, at the First Unitarian Church. I'm having one of my staffers who isn't known there go down and check it for content.

My tipster tells me the film extols the Black Panthers, and I suspect this is some kind of outside thrust to give this outfit some respectability among kids just as the courts and other reputable institutions are trying to put them in the perspective they should be in.

In any event, can you jingle me?

Cordially,

Re New Orleans letter and LHM dated 9/25/70, captioned "STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY, WORKER-STUDENT ALLIANCE, IS - SDS;" no copies designated for the Atlanta, Miami, and New York Offices. Bureau letter to Detroit dated 10/13/70, captioned "STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY, WORKER-STUDENT ALLIANCE, IS - SDS;" copies designated for the below recipient offices with the exception of the Chicago and New York Offices.

For the information of the Chicago and New York Offices, referenced Bureau letter made reference to New Orleans LHM which contained a copy of a three-page statement written by [redacted] of the Berkeley, California, SDS. This article was highly critical of the SDS/WSA National Interim Conference report by [redacted]

b6
b7D

[redacted]. Referenced Bureau letter pointed out that it is apparent from the [redacted] statement as well as from information furnished by [redacted] concerning the National Interim Committee (NIC) that there is a great deal of disagreement among SDS/WSA leaders. The Bureau instructed the Boston Office to consider exploitation of this dissension through the use of a counterintelligence measure (Cointelpro) and submit its observations concerning this matter. The following is submitted per these instructions:

Information provided by [] and other sources within SDS/WSA indicate that the most significant situation occurring within SDS/WSA at the present time appears to be the rising opposition developing among San Francisco, Chicago, and New Orleans SDS chapters against the National Headquarters (NH) in Boston. The basic issue involved is the role of the NIC in the organization. The above 3 chapters and possibly others have argued that the rank-and-file members within SDS have not been allowed to determine policy for the organization via National Council and national conferences. Activists within these chapters argue that the NIC of SDS is playing the major leadership role in the organization by setting policy for SDS. These 3 chapters view the above as an extremely undesirable trend within SDS and feel that it is thwarting SDS from becoming a mass-based anti-war revolutionary organization. Activists within these 3 chapters argue that SDS has been successful in the past and can be successful in the future only if the organization allows its rank-and-file members to formulate the national meetings.

b7C

In addition, members of the anti-NH faction within SDS, in particular, [] and [] and [] and [] from Chicago are advocates of far more militant tactics than are members of the NH faction.

Also, there are those within SDS who accept the Progressive Labor Party influence and others who resent it.

It is obvious that based on the above information, there is growing resentment among various SDS/WSA chapters who have taken an anti-NH stand. Unfortunately for their cause, the NH seems to disregard their complaints.

A case in point is the situation in Florida where the SDS was overlooked when the Southern Regional Conference (held 10/9-11/70 in Atlanta, Georgia) was planned. A Miami source felt that Florida SDS was overlooked since it has been vocal in its feelings that there are too many Regional and NIC meetings which drain its local treasury and delegate expenses.

It seems that the above anti-NH forces are having difficulty uniting in order that they might achieve strength and influence within SDS/WSA. One probable explanation is that they have been unable to physically assemble as a united force and challenge the NH on its "lack of inner debate and struggle around ideas and practice" and "isolation from the ideas and interests of the majority of students," as [] alleges in his statement referenced to above.

It would appear that the SDS/WSA planned national demonstrations in San Jose, California, and Detroit, Michigan, on 11/3/70 would afford the anti-NH groups an opportunity to achieve universal assembly and simultaneously challenge the NH forces from a position of strength rather than having to express their resentment and complaints from various sectors of the United States, thereby eliminating the possibility of much-needed broad support.

In order to alert the anti-NH forces to the above opportunity, the Boston Office suggests that the Bureau authorize recipient offices to encourage sources who are affiliated with factional groups within SDS/WSA to discreetly suggest without creating undue suspicion that representatives of the SDS/WSA group in question be sent to the sites of the planned 11/3/70 national demonstration, principally to confront NH representatives on their "undemocratic" and neglectful attitude toward rank-and-file members.

Indications are that the NH is planning conferences in the San Francisco, San Jose, and Detroit areas on 11/1/70 and 11/2/70 to prepare for the national demonstration on 11/3/70. Such conferences could serve as occasions for attending disgruntled SDS/WSA representatives to air their critical views of the NH and hopefully develop a strong platform, thereby substantially promoting the already existing factionalism within SDS.

Request of the Bureau

The Bureau is requested to study the above observations set forth by the Boston Office and, if found acceptable, authorize recipient offices to encourage their sources, particularly those who plan to attend the national demonstrations, to agitate in their respective SDS/WSA groups with a view toward confronting the NH on the above issues during the national demonstrations for the purpose of promoting factionalism within SDS/WSA, and thereby weakening its current unsteady posture.

Request of Recipient Offices

Canvass informants concerning their availability to travel to San Jose, California, or Detroit, Michigan, in order to achieve maximum coverage of SDS/WSA national demonstrations in those cities on 11/3/70.

Recipients also await Bureau's decision concerning the above suggested Cointelpro effort submitted by the Boston Office. Should the Bureau authorize the implementation of this suggestion, sources should be cautioned concerning engaging in any action that might jeopardize their confidential relationship with the Bureau and thus adversely affect their future value.

BS 100-33530

The Boston Office is presently canvassing informants in an effort to determine their availability concerning the national demonstration in Detroit on 11/3/70.

The Boston Office will await the results of the Bureau's review of the above suggestion.

Brothers and sisters,

We are a losely organized group from the rank and file membership who find that we are united in our growing resentment in the high-handed measures in which the NIC members are conducting the business of the SDS.

The NH is reminded that when we were a large organization of many thousands on many campuses we were able to meet and hash out among ourselves those policies and ideas orginating with the ordinary membership. Factions forming within the SDS nearly shattered it at the Chicago convention June, 1968.

Since the idiot Weatherman and RYM have withered and died the NH has continually formed elitist attitudes with respect to policy, meetings, conventions, etc. It is also extremely evident that the PL domineers SDS now and is trying to completely run this organization to the detriment of all other members. The NH is also reminded that it was the PL block within the SDS which actually is responsible for the fractionalizing of the SDS due to its regimented and undemocratic participation in all proposals presented. We are going on record demanding that at the November 3rd meetings at Oakland and Detroit that we have a formal meeting wherein anyone who wishes to speak is given every opportunity and that all proposals be presented so that they may be fairly considered by all present.

In addition, we want this letter to be read to the plenary session so that everyone will be aware of this growing condemnation of the NC, particularly Alan Spector, an outright PL, and all the rest who side with him.

We were recently informed that we are $5,000 in debt and we continually hear cries for donations for this or that. Much of our financial distress can be overcome by an open and free organization untainted by dictatorial clicks which we blame for the decreasing volume of dues paying members nationally.

See you At Oakland and Detroit where we will either become a healthy growing viable democratic student organization or continue to be the suckers and lackies of the PL.

"STUDENT"
INFORMATION CONCERNING

On 10/9/70, at 1:15 p.m., [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] a senior and graduating senior at the University of Miami's main campus, respectively, came to the Miami Office of the FBI to discuss the formation of a new student organization tentatively named the "Student," which was to be founded according to the university's guidelines and which was to have as its main objective to thwart the propaganda being disseminated by the far left and far right extremist elements of the university.

b7C

At the outset of the interview, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were informed by the writer that the FBI could not be associated with any student organization at the university, either directly or indirectly. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] responded that they were aware of this, but indicated that they would appreciate any literature which was open for dissemination to college students.

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were furnished twenty copies of "An Open Letter to College Students" from J. EDGAR HOOVER, Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation, U. S. Department of Justice, dated 9/21/70.

b7C

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] indicated that since they were students at the University of Miami, they might at some future date have some information of value regarding activities there, and would be willing to discreetly furnish same to the FBI.

SA [REDACTED] was advised of this, spoke to both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], and advised them that should they possibly develop some information of value pertaining to activities at the University of Miami campus, they could furnish same to him. SA [REDACTED] further reiterated to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] that the FBI could not be associated in any way with the formation of their new student organization. Both indicated they understood.

J. Edgar Hoover's OPEN LETTER TO COLLEGE STUDENTS

As a 1970 college student, you belong to the best educated, most sophisticated, most poised generation in our history.

The vast majority of you, I am convinced, sincerely love America and want to make it a better country.

You do have ideas of your own — and that's good. You see things wrong in our society which we adults perhaps have minimized or overlooked. You are outspoken and frank and hate hypocrisy. That is good too.

There's nothing wrong with student dissent or student demands for changes in society or the display of student unhappiness over aspects of our national policy. Student opinion is a legitimate aspect of public opinion in our society.

But there is real ground for concern about the extremism which led to violence, lawlessness, and disrespect for the rights of others on many college campuses during the past year.

The extremists are a small minority of students and faculty members who have lost faith in America. They ridicule the flag, poke fun at American institutions, seek to destroy our society. They are not interested in genuine reform. They take advantage of the tensions, strife, and often legitimate frustrations of students to promote campus chaos. They have no rational, intelligent plan for the future either for the university or the Nation.

The extremists are of wide variety: adherents of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) including the Weathermen; members of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA), the Trotskyist youth group; the Communist Party's Young Workers Liberation League (YWLL). Or they may be associated with the Student Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam (SMC), a Trotskyist-dominated antiwar group.

Many are not associated with any national group. The key point is not so much the identification of extremists but learning to recognize and understand the mentality of extremism which believes in violence and destruction.

Based on our experience in the FBI, here are some of the ways in which extremists will try to lure you into their activities:

1. They'll encourage you to lose respect for your parents and the older generation. This will be one of their first attacks, trying to cut you off from home. You'll hear much about the "failures" and "hypocrisy" of your parents and their friends. The older generation has made mistakes but your parents and millions of other adults worked hard, built, sacrificed, and suffered to make America what it is today. It is their country too. You may disagree with them, but don't discredit their contributions.

2. They'll try to convert you to the idea that your college is "irrelevant" and a "tool of the Establishment." The attack against the college administration often is bitter, arrogant, and unreasoning. SDSers, for example, have sought to disrupt the colleges by demanding the right to select professors, determine the curriculum, and set grading standards.

3. They'll ask you to abandon your basic common sense. Campus extremism thrives on specious generalizations, wild accusations, and unverified allegations. Complex issues of state are wrapped in slogans and cliches. Dogmatic statements are issued as if they were the final truth. You should carefully examine the facts. Don't get involved in a cause just because it seems "fashionable" or the "thing to do." Rational discussion and rational analysis are needed more than ever before.

4. They'll try to envelop you in a mood of negativism, pessimism, and alienation toward yourself, your school, your Nation. This is one of the most insidious of New Left poisons. SDS and its allies judge America exclusively from its flaws. They see nothing good, positive, and constructive. This leads to a philosophy of bitterness, defeatism, and rancor. I would like you to know your country more intimately. I would want you to look for the deeper unifying forces in America, the moods of national character, determination, and sacrifice which are working to correct these flaws. The real strength of our Nation is the power of morality, decency, and conscience which rights the wrong, corrects error, and works for equal opportunity under the law.

5. They'll encourage you to disrespect the law and hate the law enforcement officer. Most college students have good friends who are police officers. You know that when extremists call the police "pigs" they are wrong. The officer protects your rights, lives, and property. He is your friend and he needs your support.

6. They'll tell you that any action is honorable and that if it's "sincere" or "idealistic" in motivation. Here is one of the most seductive of New Left appeals - that is an arsonist's or anarchist's heart is in the right place, if he feels he is doing something for "humanity" or a "higher cause," then his act, even if illegal, is justifiable. Remember that acts have consequences. The alleged sincerity of the perpetrator does not absolve him from responsibility. His acts may affect the rights, lives, and property of others. Just being a student or being on campus does not automatically confer immunity or grant license to violate the law. Just because you don't like a law doesn't mean you can violate it with impunity.

7. They'll ask you to believe that you, as a student and citizen, are powerless by democratic means to effect change in our society. Remember the books on American history you have read. They tell the story of the creative self-renewal of the Nation through change. Public opinion time after time has brought new policies, goals, and methods. The individual is not helpless or caught in "bureaucracy" as these extremists claim.

8. They'll encourage you to hurl bricks and stones instead of logical argument at those who disagree with your views. I remember an old saying: "He who strikes the first blow has run out of ideas." Violence is as ancient as the cave man; as up-to-date as the Weatherman. Death and injury, fear, distrust, animosity, polarization, counter-violence - these arise from violence. The very use of violence shows the paucity of rational thought in the SDS, its inability to come up with any intelligent critique of our society.

Personally, I don't think the outlook for campus unrest this year is as bleak as some prophets of pessimism proclaim. The situation at some colleges is serious, but certainly not hopeless.

Along with millions of other adults, I'm betting on the vast majority of students who remain fair-minded, tolerant, inquisitive, but also firm about certain basic principle of human dignity, respect for the rights of others, and a willingness to learn. I am confident our faith has not been misplaced.

AN OPEN LETTER TO COLLEGE STUDENTS

John Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
United States Department of Justice

As a 1970 college student, you belong to the best educated, most sophisticated, most poised generation in our history.

The vast majority of you, I am convinced, sincerely love America and want to make it a better country.

You do have ideas of your own - and that's good.
You see things wrong in our society which we adults perhaps have minimized or overlooked. You are outspoken and frank and hate hypocrisy. That is good too.

There's nothing wrong with student dissent or student demands for changes in society or the display of student unhappiness over aspects of our national policy. Student opinion is a legitimate aspect of public opinion in our society.

(This open letter to college students from Director Hoover pinpoints eight ploys used by radical extremists in their efforts to steer justifiable campus protest into violent and destructive channels. It was furnished to United International on 9-21-70 and is reprinted with permission.)

But there is real ground for concern about the extremism which led to violence, lawlessness, and disrespect for the rights of others on many college campuses during the past year.

The extremists are a small minority of students and faculty members who have lost faith in America. They ridicule the flag, poke fun at American institutions, seek to destroy our society. They are not interested in genuine reform. They take advantage of the tensions, strife, and often legitimate frustrations of students to promote campus chaos. They have no rational, intelligent plan of the future either for the university or the Nation.

The extremists are of wide variety: adherents of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) including the Weatherman; members of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA), the Trotskyist youth group; the Communist Party's Young Workers Liberation League (YWLL). Or they may be associated with the Student Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam (SMC), a Trotskyist-dominated antiwar group.

Many are not associated with any national group. The key point is not so much the identification of extremists but learning to recognize and understand the mentality of extremism which believes in violence and destruction.

Based on our experience in the FBI, here are some of the ways in which extremists will try to lure you into their activities:

1. They'll encourage you to lose respect for your parents and the older generation. This will be one of their first attacks, trying to cut you off from home. You'll hear much about the "failures" and "hypocrisy" of your parents and their friends. The older generation has made mistakes but your parents and millions of other adults worked hard, built, sacrificed, and suffered to make America what it is today. It is their country too. You may disagree with them, but don't discredit their contributions.

2. They'll try to convert you to the idea that your college is "irrelevant" and a "tool of the Establishment." The attack against the college administration often is bitter, arrogant, and unreasoning. SDSers, for example, have sought to disrupt the colleges by demanding the right to select professors, determine the curriculum, and set grading standards.

3. They'll ask you to abandon your basic common sense. Campus extremism thrives on specious generalizations, wild accusations, and unverified allegations. Complex issues of state are wrapped in slogans and cliches. Dogmatic statements are issued as if they were the final truth. You should carefully examine the facts. Don't blindly follow courses of action suggested by extremists. Don't get involved in a cause just because it seems "fashionable" or the "thing to do." Rational discussion and rational analysis are needed more than ever before.

4. They'll try to envelop you in a mood of negativism, pessimism, and alienation toward yourself, your school, your Nation. This is one of the most insidious of New Left poisons. SDS and its allies judge America exclusively from its flaws. They see nothing good, positive, and constructive. This leads to a philosophy of bitterness, defeatism, and rancor. You know that when extremists call the police "pigs" they are wrong. The officer protects your rights, lives, and property. He is your friend and he needs your support.

6. They'll tell you that any action is honorable and right if it's "sincere" or "idealistic" in motivation. Here is one of the most seductive of New Left appeals - that if an arsonist's or anarchist's heart is in the right place, if he feels he is doing something for "humanity" or a "higher cause," then his act, even if illegal, is justifiable. Professor Unit Censures U of F Over Firing of 2

GAINESVILLE — The American Association of University Professors, a national professional academic organization, Friday unanimously voted to censure the University of Florida for lack of academic freedom.

The 700 delegates, at their annual convention in Philadelphia, took the action because of the firing of Dr. Marshall Jones and Professor LeRoy Lamborn.

Jones, who was unanimously recommended for promotion on tenure by his College of Medicine colleagues in 1967, was fired for espousing political beliefs that students and faculty must have control of the university.

Lamborn, in 1969, was fired from the College of Law when he refused to sign a state loyalty oath, which is being contested in the courts.

U of F Chief Refuses Amnesty to Protesters

By REG CROWDER
And RAUL RAMIRE
Herald Staff Writers

GAINESVILLE — University of Florida students marched and demonstrated a second day Friday as President Stephen C. O'Connell refused to give in to demands.

That meant 72 students among the 80 arrested Thursday stayed under a suspension order. However an official said late Friday the students could continue attending classes until hearings are held.

Meanwhile, black students and some white student groups pressed for a boycott of classes Monday, a protest Student Government President Stephen Uhlfelder of West Palm Beach predicted would be 50 per cent effective.

They also circulated petitions calling for the president's ouster and conducted a sit-in at the administration building until early evening.

"O'Connell's Gotta Go" was the chant at a noontime rally at the Plaza of the Americas where several thousand students heard O'Connell defend his position.

"We cannot change yesterday," he declared, only to be interrupted with shouts of "Yes you can."

O'Connell continued, "but we can prevent a repetition of it."

There were no additional arrests Friday and no fighting.

O'Connell said there would be "no amnesty" for the students arrested when they refused to leave the administration building Thursday as blacks tried to press demands for more black students, faculty and advisers.

The arrests Thursday came after blacks presented a list of demands to O'Connell and refused to leave the office after he had talked briefly with them. Police were called, 72 arrested, and then several thousand students massed in demonstrations that continued into the night. Eight more were arrested.

"I regret that my statements yesterday may have made it appear to some people that I was taking a position of unwillingness to discuss the problems of the black students on this campus," O'Connell said.

"Long before this fiasco campus about there has been a continuous effort to bring black faculty and black students to this campus."

There are approximately 300 blacks on the 22,000-student campus. O'Connell said he recognized they had special problems and added:

"I AM NOT black and cannot understand the feelings, needs and hurts of black men, but I believe I can understand the aspirations of black students."

The University president said he had "no alternative" but to have the students arrested when they would not leave his office. He said he had promised to meet with a smaller group of blacks.

However, he said there would be "no amnesty" for the students arrested — and automatically suspended as a result.

STUDENTS followed to Tigert Hall, the administration building, for a sit-in. Many carried banners bearing a red clenched fist.

The students listened to speakers and sang protest songs such as "We Shall Overcome" and "Ain't Gonna Let Nobody Turn Us Around."

Uhlfelder, while urging an end to any violence, said O'Connell should resign if he won't meet the original demands. He said he and other student leaders met for five hours with the university president, ending at 3 a.m.

Friday and that while O'Connell's position didn't change, his "tone softened."

O'Connell Called Racist

GAINESVILLE — (AP) — Sam Taylor charges that University of Florida President Stephen O'Connell is a racist and blames him for Thursday's violence on the Gator campus.

"He seems to be not only a racist but an extremely stubborn one," charged Taylor, spokesman for the Black Student Union, in an interview.

He cited two things he considers damaging evidence — O'Connell's membership in the all-white Gainesville Country Club and O'Connell's concurrence when he was a member of the Florida Supreme Court in a ruling rejecting the first black applicant to the university law school.

TAYLOR SPOKE for a group that laid six black student demands before O'Connell Thursday.

"When we gave him the list, he took a cursory glance at it and said if we didn't leave his office in three minutes we'd be suspended," Taylor said.

The group left and Taylor got a 15-minute appointment with O'Connell.

The black student said he attempted to explain to O'Connell that the situation held a great potential for going further than he imagined.

"WE WERE trying a low-key approach and he insisted on taking the offensive," Taylor declared.

Officers Confront Marchers

By REG CROWDER
Herald Correspondent

GAINESVILLE, Fla. —

Students staged two marches here Saturday, demanding that Stephen O'Connell resign as University of Florida president.

About 250 students Saturday evening walked to O'Connell's home and were met by nine riot-equipped police about 7 p.m.

Students, who made up chants and football-type cheers calling for O'Connell to resign, faced police across the university president's driveway, but no violence erupted.

AND ABOUT 8:30 the marches, apparently tired, dispersed peacefully.

March organizers said a center for coordinating a proposed Monday student strike was set up in the Catholic Student Center and they would be available to make short speeches about their demands at church services this morning.

The second march grew out of a small 6 p.m. rally, which included a rock music band.

Earlier Saturday about 150 students marched a twisting route through the campus.

A nearly all-black group gathered several blocks from the campus about 1:30 p.m. and entered University Avenue, a major highway splitting the city of Gainesville and leading to the university campus.

"Hey, hey, ho, ho, to O'Connell's house we go," chanted the cheerful crowd, but they didn't go to O'Connell's as they had Thursday night.

BY THE end of the march, the crowd had grown to about 300, about half black and half white. The march ended in the Plaza of the Americas where the crowd dispersed.

Saturday was the third day of unrest on the campus of 42,000 students. It started Thursday with the arrest of 72 blacks who occupied the office of President O'Connell. Later Thursday, police and students battled behind the University Administration Building.

Friday students staged a sit-in at the Administration Building.

1,000 From FAMU March, Protest 'Police Brutality'

By The Associated Press

TALLAHASSEE — More than 1,000 Florida A&M University students marched on the governor's mansion in Tallahassee Saturday to protest alleged police brutality and voice support of striking black students at the University of Florida.

Students chanted and sang in a two-mile march from the campus to the governor's mansion carrying signs that read, "Put an end to police brutality."

There are 3,900 students enrolled at the mostly black university in the state capital.

DONNA DAWKINS, FAMU student body president, said a Leon County Sheriff's deputy beat and arrested two women students who went to the jail to see about the arrest of three blacks Wednesday.

Leon County Sheriff Raymond Hamlin told students at the rally he was investigating the allegation.

"I took careful note of everything and will investigate and do what's right," Hamlin said. "I won't know what's right until I've made a full investigation of the incident. I deal in fact and that means getting both sides of the story."

Legislative aide to Gov. Reubin Askew, Jerry Harrison, appeared and told the group the governor was in Cross City with his family and urged them to make an appointment.

The protesters called for the suspension of the deputy involved and drew up a letter asking Gov. Askew to meet them on campus this morning.

DONNIE G. Solomon, 19, Leonard L. Williams, 19, and Frances X. Daniels, 18, all Florida A&M students, were arrested Wednesday on charges of public intoxication at a recreation area near Tallahassee.

Sheriff Hamlin said students Diane Taliaferro, 18, and Carol A. Porter, 19, were arrested at the jail on disorderly conduct charges after refusing to leave.

"That's ridiculous," said Miss Dawkins. "If you could see that 200-pound deputy, you'd see how ridiculous the charges are. We are preparing documentation of this incident and we will present it to the sheriff's department."

"Issues for immediate action" were listed by the Florida A&M student government:

• Officers involved in the "recent brutality of three FAMU students" be brought to justice and a civilian review board be established to prove acts of brutality.

• A proposed bill limiting enrollment of FAMU to 5,000 be opposed by Gov. Askew.

• "We ask Gov. Askew to convene and override abusive actions and attitudes taken by Stephen O'Connell. We totally support the strike by our brothers and sisters at the University of Florida and encourage support from all students in the state university system."

After 3 Years

O'Connell's Hopes Remain Unfulfilled

By RAUL RAMIREZ
Herald Staff Writer

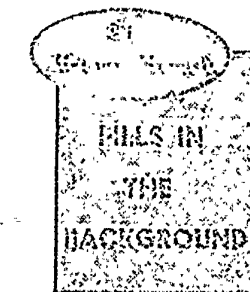

GAINESVILLE, Fla. — When Stephen C. O'Connell left the Florida Supreme Court to become president of the University of Florida in 1967 he vowed to make the largest university in the state "the best in the South and second to none in the nation."

At a time when colleges throughout the nation were experiencing a wave of conflicts that threatened their very existence, his promise was brazen indeed.

Today, his words continue to be as much of a dream as they were then. The UF, faced with a relentless string of crises, has continued to drift almost aimlessly while attending to the problems of the day.

Thursday's takeover of the administration building by disgruntled black students and ensuing violence between some students and police were perhaps the most serious confrontation in the school's history. For O'Connell, it was one more in a long series of frustrations.

On the campus, students are seeking more drastic reform than the administration is willing to provide. Even where the administration shows its willingness to yield to student requests, the channels of change seem much too slow for the students.

Many faculty members are growing increasingly concerned as they see what they feel are their academic prerogatives eroded by some of the administrative concessions to the students.

Off campus, the general public continues to press for an end to what they view as a permissive atmosphere that may be making revolutionaries of their children. Many parents insist that the university must continue to control the morals of their increasingly independent children.

The Legislature, caught in the economic pinch of the times, continues to press for moneysaving maneuvers. Meanwhile, every legislative session sees a barrage of bills which elected officials claim would help control student excesses, but which students view as repressive.

The growth of the University of South Florida, Florida Atlantic University and Florida State University and the creation of Florida International University, the University of North Florida and the University of West Florida have brought a new clamor for a share of the scarce state funds available to higher education.

As students and some faculty continue to protest, the purse strings in Tallahassee and in alumni circles continue to tighten — probably because of the economic hardships of the times and reaction to student activism.

"O'Connell just has two damn many publics," says Robert Mandell, a student leader from Miami who dubs himself a "Moderate." "And it's students who come after the Legislature and the general public."

"IF THE MAN would just begin to understand that he is not going to please everyone," points out a student activist, "he would be much better off. As long as he continues to play footsie with the Legislature the campus is going to suffer. He should begin trying to solve some of the legitimate problems of students and faculty. That way he can only win."

Rae O. Weimer, special assistant to O'Connell and former dean of the College of Journalism and Communications, points to some of the results of an "Action Conference" called by O'Connell in 1968 as evidence of administrative sensitivity to legitimate student problems.

THE ACTION Conference, a sort of collegiate peace talks, involving students, faculty and administrators, was called by O'Connell during a wave of student activism shortly after he became Uf president. It resulted in numerous recommendations which have now been put into effect.

Stephen O'Connell
... 'best in South'

Among them, was a pass-fail grading system under which students can take certain courses outside their major field without the pressure of specific grades; the creation of the post of Coordinator of Minority and Disadvantaged Students; a greater emphasis on academic counseling; re-evaluation of University curriculum with greater emphasis on student participation in curriculum decision making.

Other changes include the revamping of a loyalty oath required of all state employees to eliminate a part of questionable constitutionality; creation of grade appeal boards in every college; changes in student orientation procedures; revision and virtual elimination of compulsory class attendance policies; and revamping of student housing regulations.

"That shows the man is thinking," Weimer points out.

EVEN THE University Senate, where only two years ago students were not even allowed to listen to debate, now has five students sitting as nonvoting members, but who may introduce proposals for consideration.

This is just fine, student activists report, but it does little more than to give the students a false sense of participation.

"The administration does a great job of giving in on the little things," one demonstrator basking in the sun in front of the administration building said Friday. "But when it comes to the real important things they are mute, deaf and blind."

"THE CHANNELS are way too slow," a low-student points out. "It's four years later by the time we get some results. But the students, who are here for a limited period of time, want to see those results. That's why they become frustrated."

Even student government, until recently a consiliatory force between students and the administration, have now taken a most active role in protesting. Student body president Steve Uhlfelder, a senior in law from West Palm Beach, was one of the first student speakers before Thursday's disturbance to demand O'Connell's resignation.

"I believe he (O'Connell) is doing what he thinks is right," Uhlfelder maintains. "I think he is wrong about what is right for this university. It is not that he hasn't tried. It is that he doesn't understand."

"THE ISSUE is much larger than black and white," Uhlfelder adds. "It is an issue for fair treatment to all students, and faculty on this campus. Regrettably, I have not seen much cooperation coming from President O'Connell throughout the year during my term of office."

"Yes," reports one administrator. "It is true that there hasn't been too much cooperation between the president's office and Uhlfelder. But the road goes both ways."

"Some students think that by coming in front of Tigert Hall (administration building) shouting slogans and yelling that O'Connell's got to go they are solving their problems:

"IF WE GOT a new president tomorrow. If we got 10 new presidents, the problems would be the same. What those students out there should recognize is that we, too, see many of the problems, that we, too, would like to see them solved overnight, but that we are faced with the hard difficult considerations of working within a flexible but still restrictive framework. That we are trying to work with them, but that we must work with others, too, with the Legislature, with the alumni, with the parents, with each other.

"If they would stop shouting. If they would come in and try to work with us, to understand our problems, and to help us solve them, we all would be better off.

"THEY SEEM to feel that we have a cozy relationship with the legislators. It's difficult to admit it and I don't think anyone here would dare admit it publicly, but some of this institution's worst enemies are in Tallahassee."

O'Connell himself put it another way:

"A university can be destroyed in many ways — from within and from without. It appears that some of us are attempting to destroy it here while others are attempting it from without."

Violent incidents such as Thursday's he says "play right into the hands" of the university's outside enemies.

College president learns to change

The New York Times News Service
GAINESVILLE — Stephen C. O'Connell grew up in Florida believing the separation of Negroes and whites to be "just a commonplace thing, a way of life."

Now, the 55-year-old president of the racially troubled University of Florida says he has changed his mind and stands foursquare on the opposite end of the question.

"All of us have changed over the years and I am no longer a segregationist," he said in an interview while some 1,000 of the 22,000 students at his school continued their demonstrations and protests over his racial policies and their university's perspective on minority affairs.

The integrated coalition of the Black Student Union and the Florida Union of Students has asked O'Connell to commit himself to an intensified recruiting program that would bring 500 new Negro students into the school next year to join the 300 already enrolled.

They also have asked for his resignation as president and expressed that view in a series of rallies and marches that began Thursday morning when he refused to see a group of 68 Negro students who wanted to discuss the school's racial policies.

He asked them to leave, they sat down in his outer office and he suspended them and had them arrested.

Later, police used tear gas to disperse a crowd of 1,500 students and Thursday night a crowd of 2,000 flocked to the president's residence where a window was broken by a rock and a police car damaged.

Friday, the leaders of the demonstrations called for a general strike and Saturday an orderly crowd of about 350 Negroes and whites marched through the streets of the town chanting and singing and reiterating their opinion that "O'Connell's got to go."

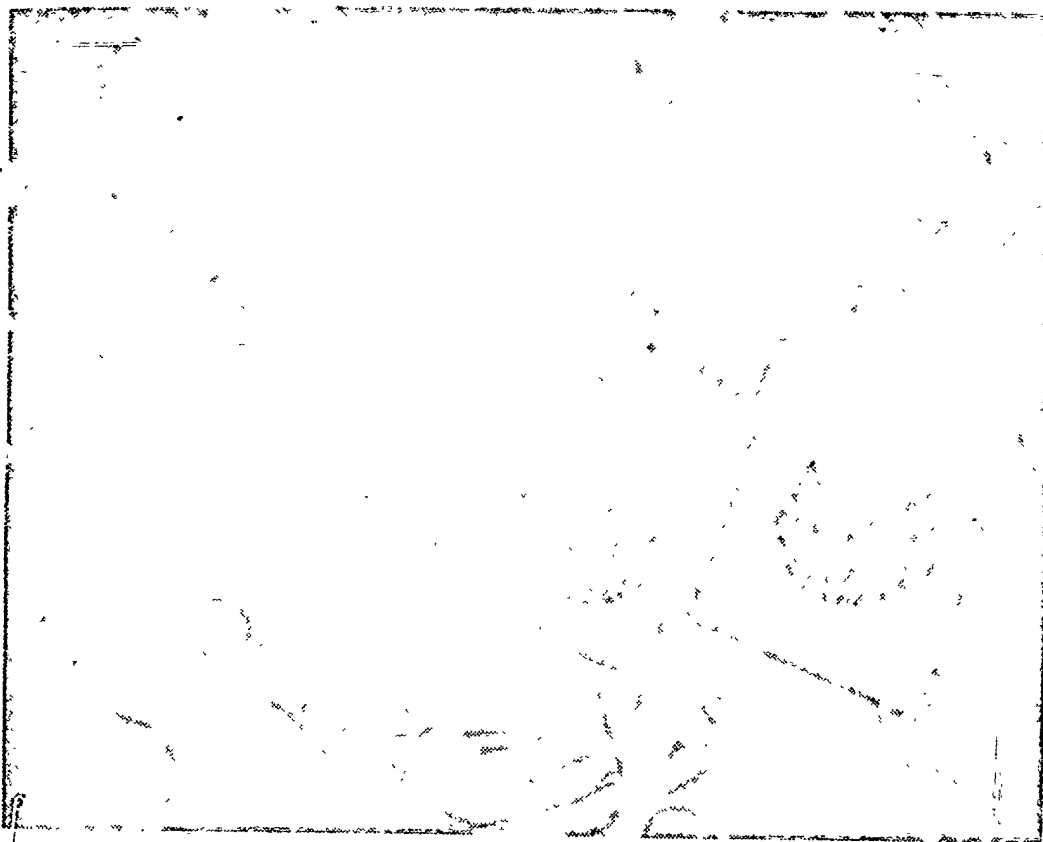

"That's ridiculous," he said. "I will not even consider it, nor will I deal with demands from so-called leaders, nor will I degrade the dignity of this institution to accede to their tactics."

He also said he would not resign from the segregated Gainesville Country club where he and several other members of the school's faculty and administration are members.

That is a prime issue in the current controversy. Student leaders of the protest believe it would be a gesture on O'Connell's part which might lead to a break in the tension, but he insists that "a man's personal associations are his own business."

The University of Florida was segregated until one year before O'Connell became its president in 1966; in the last five years its black enrollment has climbed at a less than rapid rate. Today, about one per cent of its total enrollment is Negro.

The students are also skeptical of O'Connell's racial conversion. Almost all of them are well acquainted with his role as a member of the State Supreme Court in the case of a black man who was denied entrance to the university in 1959 because he was "a potential, disruptive influence."

GAINESVILLE, Fla.

Tension following a clash between students and police last week prompted cancellation of an Earth Day speech Sunday by Lawton Chiles, but the senator made a few remarks on the Student Union terrace.

University police Lt. Dudley Goulden said the entire 55-man security force on campus had been put on 12-hour shifts with leaves and days off canceled.

Goulden said the move was in anticipation of a general strike of classes today called by black students following the arrest of 80 students at the university Thursday.

Blacks are protesting the arrests and have called for university President Stephen C. O'Connell's ouster if demands for more black students, faculty and admini-trators are not met.

Chiles praised O'Connell for his leadership of Florida's largest state-supported school, but avoided any mention of the recent student troubles at the university.

He told newsmen that he believed the demonstrations Thursday and Friday that resulted in the suspensions of 80 black students was a seasonal thing.

"It's that time of year," said Chiles, a University of Florida graduate. "There were problems when I was here and I think there'll be problems any year at this time. There should be ways of talking things out within the framework of the law."

Chiles was asked if he thought the suspensions of the black students by O'Connell were justified.

"I don't know much about the suspensions," he said. "If they were breaking the law, as I read they were, then it certainly was."

The students were suspended after refusing to leave O'Connell's office on Thursday with a list of demands. O'Connell's refusal to revoke the suspensions led to a march by students on his home Thursday night during which a rock was thrown through his window.

"No man we could have selected in Florida or anywhere else could provide such good leadership, such multiple and varied experience," said Chiles in praise of O'Connell, a former chief Justice of the State Supreme Court.

Demonstrations by up to 1,000 of the 20,000 students were held Friday and Saturday. But Sunday only small groups of protest leaders met to plan strike strategy and there were no large gatherings.

Gainesville Police Chief William D. Joiner said three grocery stores were targets for firebombs Saturday night and early Sunday. Only one store received damage — $40 to a broken plate glass window — as soda pop bottles filled with kerosene failed to ignite.

"We have not established any connection, reasons or do we have any suspects," Joiner said.

Few heed call for U-F strike

The Associated Press

GAINESVILLE — University of Florida students appeared today to have turned deaf ears on a call for a general strike. A spot check of a dozen classes showed the absence rate to be between 15 and 20 per cent.

"Judging from the number of cars in the parking lot, things are about normal," said campus Police Chief Audie Shuler.

Shuler's 55-man police security force was put on 12-hour shifts without leaves or vacation time to cope with the strike, called last Friday by the Black Student Union after 72 students were arrested on charges they were trespassing in U-F President Stephen O'Connell's office.

Arrests of the students came last Thursday when they marched on O'Connell's office to demand he move to recruit more black students and faculty at the school which has 350 blacks in a student population of 20,000. The arrests sparked demonstrations Friday, Saturday and yesterday.

More than 400 students performed a mock burial of O'Connell last night and then carried a funeral wreath to O'Connell's home.

"We've come to bury O'Connell not to praise him," intoned one youth as an effigy for the university president was placed in the Plaza of the Americas.

The crowd, swelling to 600 persons, sang "Swing Low Sweet Chariot" as a dummy was lowered into the earth.

Earlier yesterday U.S. Sen. Lawton Chiles cancelled an Earth Week speech in the open-air plaza because of tension following a clash between students and riot police last week.

The 20,000-student university has 300 black students.

O'Connell and Chiles appeared together at an informal news conference at an engineering fair yesterday and were asked about the unrest.

"It's the silly season," O'Connell said.

Chiles attributed the troubles to a good case of spring fever.

Later in an interview, O'Connell said he will testify if called in court proceedings against those arrested for trespassing in his office last week after being ordered to leave.

Alachua County Sheriff's spokesmen said the 72 arrested have been ordered to appear May 6 before a Court of Record judge to enter pleas.

GAINESVILLE, Fla.

Several hundred students at the University of Florida kept alive their protests against the university administration Monday by disrupting a number of classes and holding a peaceful noontime rally and march.

After the rally broke up, more than 100 white students banded together and stormed through classes urging other students to join in a strike protesting the arrest last Thursday of 72 students, all but one black.

MEANWHILE in Tallahassee, Florida A&M University students refused to air a list of grievances at a meeting in the Capitol offered by Gov. Reubin Askew Monday, saying they'll continue to press to get the governor to take part in an "open forum" on their campus.

"We went to his house and it's only fair that he come to our house in return" said Student Government President Donna Hawkins, who led a 1,000-student march on the governor's mansion Saturday only to find the governor was out of town.

They asked Askew to come to the campus between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday, and when the 1:30 conference was set for the governor's office instead, the student body held an emergency meeting and voted not to go.

Miss Hawkins said the students, who are protesting treatment of blacks in Tallahassee and the University of Florida in Gainesville, have no plans for another march.

At Gainesville, Student Body President Steve Uhlfelder, attempting to prevent further class disruptions, engaged in a shouting match with the students at the Plaza of the Americas.

UHLFELDER, taunted with shouts of "racist pig" and "white Uncle Tom," told the demonstrators, "This isn't the way to do it . . . You're making asses of yourselves."

Kip Smith, a black student who is secretary of minority affairs for the student government and a leader of the noon rally, told Uhlfelder: "The Black Student Union should be in charge of the strike. If there is any confrontation, we should decide."

U.S. Sen. Lawton Chiles canceled a speech in the open-air plaza Sunday and more than 400 students performed a mock burial of O'Connell Sunday night. The black union called for a general strike of classes and O'Connell's resignation.

The strike call did not appear to be effective, and Uhlfelder said the group of white students disrupting classes demanding that other students join them "was frustration for lack of support for the strike."

UNIVERSITY officials had no exact figures, but it appeared that no more than 20 per cent of the students were staying away from classes.

Minority Group In Gainesville

A NEGLIGIBLE number of students at the University of Florida heeded a call to boycott classes Monday. Absenteeism was reported about normal. We trust this foreshadows the end of the latest attempt to disrupt education provided by the taxpayers of the state for 21,000 young men and women.

The disturbance started last Thursday when about one-fifth of the university's 350 black students refused to leave the office of President Stephen C. O'Connell. He properly had them arrested. Their demands then degenerated into calls for the resignation of Mr. O'Connell.

We agree with the words of an administrator quoted by Herald staff writer Raul Ramirez: "If we got a new president — if we got 10 new presidents. — the problems would be the same."

Indeed, the commotion whipped up by the small band of demonstrators is counterproductive at this time when the Legislature is wrestling with budgets for universities and all other state purposes. Lawgivers as well as taxpayers who provide the money take a dim view of disorder on a campus maintained for the serious pursuit of higher learning.

FBI Must Reveal Dossiers On New Left Organizations

PHILADELPHIA — (UPI) — A federal judge has ordered the FBI's Philadelphia office to make available to an anti-war group files compiled on various New Left organizations.

The files in question were compiled by the FBI under Cointelpro, the code name given to its "Counter-Intelligence Program — Internal Security — Disruption of the New Left."

The nationwide program which began in May 1968 was discontinued in April 1971.

U.S. District Court Judge Donald W. Van Artsdalen ruled that Philadelphia Resistance, an anti-war group, could view the documents but with these restrictions:

① The FBI does not have to reveal "mental impressions, opinions, conclusions, investigative techniques, procedures or methods" connected with the records.

② The agency does not have to release any proposed Cointelpro plans never put into action.

③ Names of confidential informants will be withheld.

④ The group must not make public any information obtained from the files, including data pertaining to other peace activist groups. This information, however, could possibly be made public if Van Artsdalen gave his permission.

It was disclosed in testimony that Cointelpro was established by the FBI to "expose, disrupt, and otherwise neutralize the activities of the various New Left organizations, their leadership and adherents."

The Philadelphia Resistance characterized the plan as one that engaged in "unlawful harassment, intimidation and surveillance of the plaintiffs because of political beliefs and activities."

Parts of Plot on

Radicals

Abhorrent,

Report Says

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Attorney General William Saxbe will release a report Monday that labels as "abhorrent" parts of a secret program that the late FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover utilized to disrupt radical organizations in the United States, it was learned Saturday.

A committee headed by Assistant Attorney General Henry Petersen spent months searching FBI files for details of seven operations conducted for 15 years under the code name "Cointelpro." Justice Department sources told United Press International.

The department already has made public Hoover directives aiming Cointelpro — through infiltration and tricks — at New Left groups across the country.

ALSO RELEASED last summer was a 1971 Hoover directive canceling Cointelpro operations without explanation. There was speculation that Hoover became concerned about the FBI's public image during the last of his 48 years at the helm before his death at 77 in 1972.

The Washington Star-News published Saturday a 21-page draft copy of the new report outlining some of the Cointelpro operations that it said "can only be considered abhorrent in a free society."

But the report added that much of the Cointelpro project was justified and legitimate, and said "a fair, accurate and comprehensive understanding of all the activity should be made with due consideration to the problems

Hoover was dealing with.

ONE SECTION of the draft report covers 2,337 operations of FBI agents in five programs, starting with one directed against the Communist Party U.S.A.

The Socialist Workers Party, the Ku Klux Klan, Soviet espionage, black extremists and New Left groups became successive targets.

The draft report charged that some of the Cointelpro activities resembled "dirty tricks" in political campaigns and included:

- Sending anonymous communications to families of individuals advising them of "immoral or radical" activities of the individual.

- Informing employers, credit bureaus, and creditors of alleged immoral or radical activities of members of the Communist Party U.S.A.

- Leaking information to civic and religious leaders to gain their support in opposition to the targeted groups and promoting pressure on state and local governments and employers and landlords to disrupt them.

- Leaking information to newspapers and reporters considered friendly to the FBI about arrest records of individuals in the targeted groups.

- Sending out anonymous letters about suspected individuals who campaigned for election to local office.

The draft report said the committee could find no evidence that any attorney general or anyone else outside the FBI in position to approve such a program was ever consulted or even informed of its existence.

Drove him from Mississippi FBI sent minister phony threat the bureau to lawyers of the American Civil Liberties Union representing Kenyatta.

The letter, which the documents show was approved by the late J. Edgar Hoover, then the F.B.I. director, accused Kenyatta of immaturity and irresponsibility and told him to remain away from the Tougaloo College campus.

A few weeks earlier an organization calling itself the "Tougaloo college defense committee" had been formed on the campus and its members were armed. There is some indication the F.B.I. may have aided the group.

The final paragraph read: "Should you feel that this is a hollow directive and not heed our diplomatic and well thought out warning, we shall consider contact ing local authorities regarding some of your activities or take other measures available to us which would have a more direct effect and which would not be as cordial as this note."

John Shattuck, a lawyer in the A.C.L.U. New York office, said that with the letter and other Cointelpro materials attached to it, "We think we can now prove that the F.B.I. disrupted the latter part of the civil rights movement" in the South.

The stated aim of Cointelpro, which was begun by Hoover in 1956 and ended by him following the theft of some Cointelpro documents in 1971 from the F.B.I. office in Media, Pa. was the "disruption, exposure or neutralization" of various domestic political groups.

the following month and return to Pennsylvania.

In their assessment of the letter's potential impact shortly before it was sent, agents in the F.B.I.'s office in Jackson, Miss., said in a memorandum:

"It is hoped that this letter, if approved and forwarded to Jackson, will give him the impression that he has been discredited at the Tougaloo College campus and is no longer welcomed there."

The assessment also said that "it may possibly also cause him to decide to leave Mississippi and return to his original home in Pennsylvania."

A copy of the letter, signed by the "Tougaloo College Defense Committee," was among the documents of the Cointelpro, or counter-intelligence program, provided by

Socialists target of FBI hate mail

Associated Press
WASHINGTON — The FBI secretly interfered with political campaigns, promoted racial unrest and anonymously mailed abusive letters in a 10-year campaign to disrupt the Socialist Workers party, according to newly disclosed FBI documents.

Three thousand pages from the FBI files lay out the first detailed account of the counterintelligence programs, known as COINTELPRO, launched by J. Edgar Hoover at various times in the 1950s and 1960s. Hoover terminated the formal COINTELPRO operations in April 1971.

Party officials and the Political Rights Defense Fund, which is supporting the party's $27-million damage suit against the FBI, were mailing the documents public after winning a federal court order forcing the FBI to yield them. The party has accused the FBI of widespread violations of its constitutional rights.

Since it was formed in the 1930s, the party regularly has fielded candidates for local and national office, usually picking up only a tiny percentage of the vote. The party consistently advocates peaceful political activity, according to an official of the Defense Fund, a private New York group not otherwise connected to the party.

The documents show that the FBI mailed numerous anonymous letters designed to damage personal and political reputations of party members.

For example, a 1964 memo described a letter mailed to the editor of the Morning Call, a Paterson, N.J., newspaper, about one of its staff writers, Murray Zuckoff, who had been active in the party.

"You apparently don't know Zuckoff or what he stands for. It is inconceivable that such a person would find employment on a legiti-mate newspaper such as the Morning Call," said the letter, signed "a reader."

A Defense Fund official said Zuckoff subsequently dropped out of politics to keep his job.

A 1965 memo authorized the Denver FBI office to mail an anonymous letter in an effort to sabotage the campaign of Allen Taplin, a local party organizer.

"Bureau approval is requested for the Denver office to mail the following anonymous letter attributed to a concerned mother to the president of the Denver school board in an effort to prevent Taplin from being elected to the school board," the Denver FBI office wrote.

FBI tried to discredit Indiana student leader

Associated Press

INDIANAPOLIS — A secret campaign to discredit the Indiana University studentbody president in 1970-71 was conducted by the Indianapolis FBI office, which later advised Washington it had been successful. The Indianapolis News said in today's editions.

The newspaper said in a copyrighted story it had obtained documents that revealed the FBI's target was Keith Stephen Parker and the IU campus chapter of the Student Mobilization Committee (SMC).

A memorandum sent to Washington by the Indianapolis FBI office said a leaflet had been drawn up "to take advantage of adverse feelings on the IU campus regarding the trip to North Vietnam taken by Parker."

According to that memo, the leaflet was aimed at "lessening any effects of the SMC on campus and to discredit the United Student Movement which controls the student government at IU."

The memo and others indicated the suggestion for the leaflet was first made by the Indianapolis FBI office, then headed by James Nalle, who is now retired.

The correspondence between Indianapolis and Washington was included in information released to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence regarding what the FBI called its COINTELPRO, New Left operation.

James Martin, FBI agent in charge of the Indianapolis office now, said in a telephone interview with The Associated Press that the authenticity of the memos "was clear."

"I don't think you need my confirmation," Martin said. "It obviously is material that was turned over to the committee at their request."

"I'm happy to see that the news media is publishing the entire correspondence since it explains why this action was considered to be in the best interest of the national security," Martin added.

Parker was president of the student body on the Bloomington, Ind., campus during the anti-war era in 1970 and 1971. Upon graduation he entered the University of Minnesota Medical School.

A letter sent to Washington Dec. 8, 1970, by the Indianapolis FBI office described Parker as a field lieutenant in the Black Panther Party.

The memo further stated: "... Indianapolis feels strongly that this is an excellent time for the bureau to capitalize on feelings that Parker is not serving the student body, but is furthering his own gains. It is also felt that this is an excellent time to begin a program to disenchant students toward any of the USM, Student Mobilization Committee, or Young Socialist Alliance movements on the . . . campus."

The correspondence said if Washington approves distribution of an enclosed handout, "it would be mailed anonymously in packets of 25-50 to legitimate student organizations, fraternities, sororities, etc. to insure that the bureau as source will be fully protected."

The Indiana News said a memo from the director's office in Washington, dated Dec. 16, 1970, read: "With the changes noted, Bureau approval granted from the anonymous mailing to student groups of the leaflet prepared by your office."

Infiltration, Cartoon PostcardsFBI Harassed Ku Klux Klan
In 1960s, Documents Show

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The FBI drew and distributed derogatory cartoons, mailed anonymous postcards and set up a dummy citizens' committee in efforts to harass and disrupt the Ku Klux Klan, according to FBI documents disclosed Friday.

FBI agents engaged in a similar harassment campaign against the National States Rights Party, and claimed that they caused one Alabama party member to lose his job.

HOOVER

The late J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director at the time of the 10-year counterintelligence program against "white hate groups," claimed in 1965 that the FBI had informers in all 14 Klan organizations he said were in existence then.

He argued that disruptive tactics were necessary to curb racial violence by the Klan and other anti-black groups such as the States Rights Party.

Those disclosures emerged from 125 pages of FBI files on the so-called Cointelpro against white hate groups from Sept. 2, 1961, through April 28, 1971.

THE FBI turned over the documents to a group of reporters who first petitioned for them nine months ago under the Freedom of Information Act.

The documents, censored to delete many names and some other material, provide the first public glimpse of Cointelpro activities against white hate groups. The FBI previously has been forced to disclose documents dealing with Cointelpro operations against the Socialist Workers Party and other leftist political groups.

The Klan papers show that the FBI in 1968 set its laboratory division to work drawing three cartoons "in an amateurish fashion, suitable for mailing as four-cent postal cards" to known Klan members.

"These cards would be mailed openly to residences and places of business in order to cause embarrassment and dissension in the home," the FBI memo said, adding that 6,000 copies of each of the three drawings had been prepared for distribution.

Two of the drawings show an apparently nervous white-robed Klansman and carry these captions: "Someone is peeking under your sheet," and "Trying to hide your identity behind your sheet? You received this — Someone KNOWS who you are!"

THE THIRD cartoon shows two robed Klan members drinking at a bar and says, "Which Klan leaders are spending your money tonight? THINK!"

According to the documents, FBI headquarters in 1965 mailed another set of five Klan caricatures to FBI field offices for distribution.

The Cointelpro operations were concentrated primarily in the South, where the Klan was vigorously fighting the desegregation efforts in the 1960s. One of the documents said 17 FBI field offices were participating in the program but did not list them.

Other documents said activities were carried out in Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, Alabama, Virginia, Louisiana and North Carolina.

The documents showed that the FBI set up a dummy organization called the National Committee for Domestic Tranquility.

THE COMMITTEE "would provide a vehicle for attacking Klan policies and disputes from a low-key, common sense and patriotic position," the memo said. Through the phony committee, the FBI distributed bulletins under the signature of Harmon Blennerhasset, an obscure figure in American history who gave financial support to Aaron Burr," the memo said.

The committee's mailings bore the dateline of Dayton, and the FBI memo observed, "It is noted that there are 19 localities in the United States bearing the name Dayton."

The committee mailings, which questioned the Christianity and patriotism of Klan members, were sent to field offices for distribution to Klan members.

The documents contain a 1965 letter from Hoover to the attorney general, who then was Nicholas Katzenbach, and to an aide to President Johnson claiming success in Cointelpro and intelligence-gathering activities.

"NEARLY 2,000 of our informants and sources are being operated to obtain up-to-date intelligence data concerning racial matters," the letters said. "Of these, 774 have been developed in just the past year — an average of more than two each day for every day in the past 12 months."

He claimed to have informers in all 14 Klan groups and "in top-level positions of leadership in seven of them."

The documents include a congratulatory reply memo to Hoover on the letterhead of the attorney general although there is no signature on it.

The memo suggests, "Perhaps at some point it may be possible to place these achievements on the public record, so that the bureau can receive its due credit."

THE DOCUMENTS contained much less information about activities to disrupt the States Rights Party.

But an October 1965 document said FBI agents sent anonymous letters "to Negro churches and anti-segregation groups in the Birmingham area" to inform them that an employee of the Ensley Finance Co. was active in the party. The memo said the company was "dependent upon Negro patronage."

The FBI claimed credit for having the employee transferred and, after a second round of anonymous mailings, fired.

The memoranda also showed that the FBI covertly alerted Chicago building inspectors to building code violations at the headquarters of the American Nazi Party. City officials subsequently levied fines and pressured the Nazis to correct violations, which resulted in the Nazis losing their headquarters, the FBI papers said.

U.S. spy agencies ignored Nixon's order, Church says

WASHINGTON — U.S. intelligence agencies ignored a presidential order revoking a plan authorizing illegal domestic spying, Senate Intelligence Committee Chairman Frank Church says.

The decision of the President seemed to matter very little, said Church (D-Idaho) yesterday.

He noted that the CIA had illegally opened mail before the so-called Huston plan was approved by then President Richard Nixon. The Huston plan authorized what Church said were illegal wiretaps, mail openings and burglaries.

But five days later Nixon yielded to objections from then FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and then Attorney General John Mitchell and revoked the plan. However, the burglaries and mail openings continued, said Church.

White House aide Tom Charles Huston testified the intelligence agencies — not the White House — drew up the plan which is generally referred to by his last name.

Huston said he endorsed the plan because he thought it was needed to curb rising domestic violence.

Such violence still exists, Huston said, pointing to the two apparent attempts in recent days to kill President Ford.

But he said the disclosures of the Watergate period have convinced him that although it involves a serious risk, intelligence activities inside the United States must remain within the limits of the law.

Huston has testified he was also under the impression that neither Nixon nor President Lyndon B. Johnson knew of the CIA's Operation Chaos nor the FBI's Operation Conintelpro, which were aimed against dissident groups.

The big mistake I made was that I assumed the integrity of the people involved in these operations was such that these types of enormous powers would only be used in very limited, narrow circumstances," Huston said.

"It was my opinion the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution which forbids illegal search and seizure did not apply in matters of internal security because of the inherent right of the President to insure domestic security," Huston said.

FBI Had Paid Informer In Anti-Radical Group

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — FBI Director Clarence Kelley has acknowledged that a leader of an alleged secret para-military group set up in California to battle anti-war protesters was a paid FBI informer.

Kelley denied, however, that the FBI set up the organization, funded organizing efforts, or bought equipment for the group.

The San Diego Union said in a copyright article that a San Diego fireman, Howard Berry Godfrey, co-founded the Secret Army Organization in 1971 on FBI orders after the Minutemen organization was forced to disband.

During questioning by reporters following a speech, Kelley was asked about the newspaper report, and specifically whether the "head" of it was an FBI informant.

Kelley corrected the questioner, saying the man was only "a leader." He did not identify the individual, but added: "He was an informant, yes."

Asked if the man provided continual information to the FBI, Kelley responded: "Yes."

However, Kelley said the FBI "did not commission him" to set up the para-military organization. "We certainly would not," he said.

"Yes, he was paid for his work, but none to the organization, to organize it, equip it," Kelley said.

The newspaper account said activities of the group included fire-bombing automobiles, burglarizing homes and offices of anti-war protesters, bombing and ransacking offices of activist groups, stockpiling illegal weapons and explosives, making death threats and shooting a young woman.

It said the venture developed from the late FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover's "Cointelpro" intelligence effort which focused on black nationalists and "new left" groups.
